FLOUR!

We unloaded today a car of Marigold Flour, the flour that we handled with marked success and satisfaction for three years until last fall when we switched brands temporarily. This is our second car this fall and it is delightful to hear our customers voluntarily say that they are glad we are handling Marigold Flour again. We received more compliments on the first car than a flour usually gets in a years time. The car unloaded Monday afternoon is in fine shape and we want you to try a sack of it. Phone us now and tell us when you want it delivered and you too will be "glad you're handling Marigold Flour again."

Murder of Big Jack Seelig Made No Change in Plans—Strong Ally for Prosecution.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Oct. 7.—The death of "Big Jack" Seelig, although a severe blow to the prosecution, made no change in the plans for the opening of the trial of Police Lieutenant Becker today. Two hundred and fifty talesmen from which the jury will be picked, reported early and crowds swarmed through the corridors waiting to see Becker brought across the "Bridge of Sighs."

A rigid inquiry on the part of the police has brought to light nothing to indicate that Seelig was killed in an effort to defeat the ends of justice.
